Around 1730 hours the dispatcher came over the air and asked 410B to give him a number at which he can call him. Sgt. Windus notified me that Steve Burke, security with the Titans, had a player over at the stadium going off. Sgt. Windus later advised me that it was Vince Young and that he was driving a black Mercedes and was armed with a gun. Upon arrival at the stadium Jeff Fisher was by his truck. After getting briefed by the officers on the scene, apparantly they were over there and Jeff Fisher flagged them down, I spoke with Mr. Fisher. I asked him what was going on and he proceeded to tell me about getting a call from Vince Young's therapist and she was worried about him. I asked him, "What made her worry about him?" He stated, "His mood, his emotions, he is injured, he wants to quit, and he mentioned suicide several times." He went on to state that he left the house with a gun. Around that time Mike Mu, Vince's manager, showed up. He stated that he lost Vince on the interstate and he was going 90 mph and could not keep up. I asked him, "When was that?" He said, "About 45 minutes ago." He stated that he last saw him getting on I-65 north at Concord Road.

I then asked Mr. Fisher for the therapist's name. He said it was Sheila Peters. I asked for her number and he dialed it and asked her to talk to me. I identified myself and asked for her title. She stated that she was a clinical psychologist. I asked her if once we found him if she would sign 6-103 papers on him. She stated that she could be one signature on them but that he would have to be evaluated somewhere. She went on to say that she was calling Parthanon Pavillion and putting them on alert. She said that she was not going to tell them who he was but to let them know. I instructed her that once she heard from them to call Mr. Fisher back and let him know. A while later Mr. Fisher advised me that she had called back and that they were prepared to go and evaluate him on site wherever he was located. Mr. Fisher advised that he had heard from "Major" from Houston that Vince had called him and that he was safe and at an apartment with a female friend. After explaining our chain of command and how we had to follow lawful orders, I asked if he had that type of relationship with Vince and he said "Yes I have that type of relationship with him." In other words if Mr. Fisher told him to come somewhere he would. At that time we started making tactical plans as far as negotiators and SWAT in the event that Vince should call Mr. Fisher.

I was advised by Captain Hickerson that Vince had shown up at the practice field and was talked to by Ron Carter and was checked by SWAT for weapons. He was allowed to talk to his therapist and then he was released.
